BIO

Michelle Lisa Herman is an interdisciplinary artist who lives and works in Washington, D.C. and is a current MFA candidate at the Maryland Institute College of Art. Her work spans a variety of media from abstract painting to interactive installation, often exploring ideas of communication and a desire for connection in the digital age. She has exhibited her work nationally in a variety of spaces including the Smithsonian Institution International Gallery, The Corcoran Gallery of Art, DC Arts Center, Artisphere, and the Washington Project for the Arts.

Michelle Lisa Herman is an alumna of the Sparkplug artist collective sponsored by the DC Arts Center.
